

Eastern Shore Superintendents

State Funding and Fiscal Accountability

- The Eastern Shore must have a highly skilled and educated workforce
- Good schools make economic sense
- School quality depends upon our ability to provide quality educational services
- We must work together to sustain and enhance our educational offerings
- Economic vitality depends upon our schools