

Technology in Education

- Technology is an integral part of the education and administration process in today's schools
- Technology enhances instruction
- Technology provides resource materials
- Technology is a tool for communication
- Technology is used for assessment
- High quality, high speed on-line educational opportunities must be made available to all Eastern Shore students